MISS ROBERTS FRIDAY EVE IN A "SUITS OF SABLE"

The Favorite Actress to Appear in the Comedy Role of Dorothea Van Dresser.

A "SUITS OF SABLE" will be produced on Friday evening instead of the Saturday matinee, in which Florence Roberts will enact the role of Dorothea Van Dresser. This play was written especially for this very talented lady by Charlotte Thompson of San Francisco and is one of the best things in comedy that has been put before the public. In the play Miss Roberts will wear a skirt of sable that has a very interesting story connected with it. "As every critic, writ-ter of note, artist and Thespian of San Francisco is acquainted with Miss Roberts, they were all interested enough to want a hand in it, so each one was permitted to sew on this skirt a tiny, glittering spangle. There may have been some very awkward stitches but there was certainly a lot of fun and good-fellowship extended while the sewing was going on, and the combined good wishes for the success of this great comedy was assured. Miss Roberts allows no one to touch this priceless skirt, and after all have finished their work the skirt is very carefully handled and wrapped in tissue paper and locked away for safekeeping.

The dialogue of the play is sparkling with wit and there is nothing forced about it either. Dorothea Van Dresser, the heroine who wears this skirt in the second act, is a jolly, fun-loving American girl of independent disposition, and when she visits the club is finally saved from the embarrassing position by the man who loves her. We feel sure that a very warm reception will greet this Friday evening, and that the public will go home with pleasant memories of "A Suits of Sable."
